Offutt To Host Air Force Week; Air Show

Omaha will be one of three cities hosting Air Force Week in August, along with Los Angeles and Philadelphia.

The U.S. Air Force will bring its aircraft, systems and senior leaders to the area between Aug. 9 and 17.

Highlighting the event will be the Defenders of Freedom Open House and Air Show on the 16th and 17th. It will be the biggest open house ever staged at Offutt Air Force Base and includes performances by the Air Force Thunderbirds.

Members of the Air Force will also visit a number of towns in eastern Nebraska and western Iowa during the week before the air show.
