Offutt invites religious community to recognize Airmen

OFFUTT AFB, Neb. – The Heartland religious community will come together Sunday, Aug. 10, to celebrate and recognize Airmen and their families as part of Air Force Week in the Heartland Aug. 9 – 17.

This special day of prayer, ringing of bells at 3 p.m., singing and fellowship may include up to 3,000 local religious organizations within a 120-mile radius of Offutt Air Force Base, Neb.

Air Force Week in the Heartland 2008 is a week-long celebration Aug. 9-17 showcasing the U.S. Air Force, its people and their mission. Air Force Week also allows local Nebraska and Iowa communities to meet and interact with Air Force active duty, Reserve and Air National Guard servicemembers to increase public awareness and build new and lasting relationships.

Please visit www.airforceweek.com to view the full list of major public events on tap for Air Force Week in the Heartland Aug. 9-17 as well as resources for Air Force Week Faith-based outreach including songs, prayers and information about the Air Force Chaplain Service.

For more information, call the 55th Wing Public Affairs office at 402-294-3663.
