IMAX® Movie “Fighter Pilot – Operation Red Flag” to show Daily at Zoo Theater

OFFUTT AIR FORCE BASE, Neb. – The IMAX® movie "Fighter Pilot – Operation Red Flag." will be shown twice daily at the Henry Doorly Zoo® Lozier IMAX® Theater, Omaha, Neb. as part of Air Force Week in the Heartland 2008.

The movie times are 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. daily Aug. 9-17 and are free for active military, active guard and active reserve and their immediate households (2 adults and dependent children 20 years of age and under). The movie showings are open to the public as well for standard 2D movie ticket pricing.

Air Force aircrew members will introduce each movie and be available to answer questions after viewings.

On Thursday, Aug. 14, one of the aircrew members appearing in the movie will introduce the show and be available for questions as well. Also on that day at the zoo, the Air Force’s Do Something display, including a full F-16 Fighting Falcon aircraft and entertainment, from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

On Friday, Aug. 15, zoo visitors can see a large display on U.S. Space Command and watch a movie on the mission of the command. There will be a space expert on hand to answer questions.

Air Force Week in the Heartland 2008 is a week-long extravaganza Aug. 9-17 showcasing the U.S. Air Force, its people and their mission.
